Now catering for men from chest size S to 5XL and waist 34 to 54 they now sell clothes to fit most men. Gone is Johnny Vegas as an ambassador, welcome Freddy Flintoff. The Freddy Flintoff collection is full of easy to wear casual clothes such as hoodies , jeans and military jackets, to smart blazers, suit jackets and trousers all designed by Freddy. I was sent the military jacket for my husband to try out, and we were both impressed with the smart yet relaxed jacket and quality of the finish, no unfinished seams here, a versatile jacket of great quality Regarding the detailing it has two top and bottom pockets, a drawcord fastening at the waist and a zip. The jacket is heavily padded and feels warm on so would be great for Autumn/Winter strolls. Available in navy and olive (featured) these two great colours would go with most things. A great plus point is that it is machine washable so you can save on the dry cleaning bills. We both really liked the jacket. It's smart enough to be worn for a meal out but casual enough to be worn just walking along the beach. At £50 it is a great buy too for a jacket of this quality. Soft cord detailing on the neckline adds a touch of smartness When talking to my husband we both said we would buy from Jacamo again. They have a wide range of clothing, prices seem reasonable and the quality is definitely there. One thing, just check the sizing, which you can easily do on the website, as my husband had a medium and usually he is a large. The sizes appear on the large side for the size. They also have loads of great brands including Ben Sherman, Lacoste, and Nike to name but a few. So next time you go shopping for your man, check out the Jacamo website. I think you will be pleasantly surprised.
